RIDE TO HALEIWA.

Persons who travel on the limited between Haleiwa and Honolulu on the night run say that in spite of the darkness the journey is delightful. When it is moonlight and the spray dashing from the rocks is a picture worth going miles to see. Haleiwa is, without doubt, the most delightful spot in the islands and if there is anyone who has not seen the hotel and had a meal there should lose no time. There is always a round at golf and tennis and the beach is the finest on the island.

OVER THE TEACUPS.

By Lady Gay.

Mr. Paul Super, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., is confined to his room from sickness. He was not able to be present at the exercises of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. He hopes to be able to attend some of the meetings during the week.

A large number of society people are expected to arrive tomorrow morning on the Siberia.

On Wednesday of this week the Morning Music Club holds its first meeting and the various clubs and organizations are planning staid and entertainment for the coming months.

The Chautauqua class and Aloha chapter of the D. A. R. each has its first meeting of the season today.

The Y. W. C. A. is planning more aggressive work in educational and social lines.

A Shakespearean class, led by Miss Meyer, meets every alternate Thurs- day in the Boston building at 3 o'clock.

A Travel Study Club meets on alter- nate Tuesdays at 7:30 p. m. at the Homestead. This club is to have dif- ferent leaders. The first meeting will be on Tuesday evening, October 10.

Mrs. W. C. Weedon is conducting a class in Bible study at the Homestead. Special classes in stenography, type- writing and bookkeeping are being planned for those interested.

Dr. Hobdy will instruct a class in "First Aid to the Injured" every Tues- day evening at 7:00 in Kilohana Art League rooms.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet for a social afternoon on Tuesday with Mrs. Ellsworth at Waikiki.

Tonight the president and board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will enter- tain the press and pulpit with a din- ner. This will be the first social func- tion given in the new building. Mr. Richard Trent will sit at the head of the table.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Klein was cele- brated at their home, 1221 Pensacola street, on Saturday evening, October 7.

The home was tastefully decorated with malle and white flowers with streamers of silver tinsel.

American flags were draped over the entrances.

The entertainment consisted of music, recitations and dances. Among those taking part were Mrs. W. R. Felter, who presided at the piano; Mrs. Charles Flickinger and Miss Edith Klein sang. Mr. George Dyson and F. W. Klein sang several songs.

Mrs. M. A. McConley gave recita- tions in an admirable way.

Mrs. H. A. Schroeder performed upon the piano and Mr. W. W. Klein upon the violin.

Mr. G. McMahon, the Honolulu poet, entertained with a Japanese character song and dance and some impromptu creations.

As Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played the guests marched into the dining-room, led by the bride and groom, to partake of refreshments served from several small tables.

Mr. W. R. Felter acted as toastmas- ter, and many toasts were proposed to the health and prosperity of Mr. and Mrs. Klein.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Klein, Mr. G. G. Waller, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McConley, Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cheatham, Mrs. A. Otrema, Misses Hettie and Frances Otrema, Mr. C. W. Trybe, Mr. G. W. Bonamy, Miss C. Neilson, Mr. H. A. Schroeder, Mr. Geo. Dyson and brother, Mrs. W. L. W. Klein.

Senator and Mrs. Charles Chilling- worth gave an elaborate dinner last night at their home on King street to Captain and Mrs. Ernst Anderson.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Honn, Mrs. W. S. M. Lindsay, Mrs. Heinrich M. P. Rose, Captain and Mrs. Anderson and Senator and Mrs. Chillingworth.

The reception room was beautifully decorated with palms and big baskets of La Marque roses.

The dinner was served at a long table garlanded with Shasta daisies and maidenhair ferns. The enter- piece was a huge true lover's knot of white satin in a bank of ferns.

The chandelier was decorated with smilax and daisies caught in the center by a big bow of white tulle which was festooned to the sides of the room forming a canopy.

Mrs. Chillingworth's exquisite Bo- hemian glass added luster to the table.

The place cards for the ladies were little hand-painted brides.

The card for the lady of honor was distinguished by a real bride's veil.

The gentlemen's place cards were painted on miniature steamer trunks to which boutaniers of Shasta daisies were attached.

The card for the gentleman of honor was distinguished by a quantity of white tulle and rice.

Mrs. Anderson wore a gown of white lace over white satin.

Mrs. Chillingworth was beautiful in a spangled net gown over satin.

Mrs. Honn wore white satin with trimmings of Rose Point lace.

Mrs. Harry Murray was very dainty in a white Marquiesette embroidered in blue worn over blue silk.

Mrs. Lindsay wore a white Mar- quiesette embroidered in white over white satin.
